

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since this law was implemented we've experinced a substantial reduction of anoying phone calls from marketers, leaving us with precious time needed for our family interaction when we need it the most. We used to receive at least one call every evening from a marketer, nowadays these calls are pretty much gone!